

Eccellio launches new service Movies miner

The Internet community can (now) start to easily find everything about the fabulous world of Cinema

Bellevue, WA - June 15, 2009 - Eccellio™ today announced that a new free service named Eccellio Movies (<http://movies.eccellio.com>) has been put online in Beta. Eccellio Movies lets you easily find the latest news from glamorous actor and actress, movie-awards, reviews, soundtracks and so on.

"Today we are very proud and happy. Eccellio Movies is our third product we have launched in the last three months. Our Eccellio community grows day-by-day and we are preparing exciting news for the next months."

Eccellio Movies is side by side with other free web miners that Eccellio previously released, like Eccellio Science (<http://science.eccellio.com>) that is focused on Science matters and Eccellio Web Miner (<http://www.eccellio.com>) that is a general purpose faceting search-engine.

About Eccellio

Eccellio is an Internet company founded in 2008 that has its focus on improving end user experience in retrieving information on Internet. Eccellio is a Search Engine that brings a cool new feature, named "Faceted Classification", that easily allows finding exactly what you are looking for. Eccellio uses Google database but it adds an extra level of classification that allows you to refine your search easily. End users don't need to learn a complex syntax to execute searches. So Eccellio can be defined as Google++ or Google simplicity with one additional single-click. For more information:
